From the Pastor's desk...

Greetings Mount Calvary Nation:

What turbulent times we live in! A multiplicity of circumstances and conditions in our world come against us everyday. Even with a pandemic still affecting much of the earth, there are, as Jesus states in Matthew 24, "...wars and rumors of wars…", nation against nation, kingdom against kingdom, famine, and natural disasters. We daily fight societal injustices and institutional bigotry. All of this, on top of our personal storms and private struggles.

Indeed, I am reminded of King Jehoshaphat, when he and Judah were faced with a host of enemies coming together against them in 2 Chronicles 20. Starting at vs. 3 - "Alarmed, Jehoshaphat resolved to inquire of the LORD, and he proclaimed a fast for all Judah. [4] The people of Judah came together to seek help from the LORD…" At the end of his prayer, Jehoshaphat says this. "We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you."

That's what this period of fasting and prayer is about for the Mount Calvary Nation—it is a RE-FOCUSING! It is a time to push back from the table, to seek the Lord with our whole hearts, and to turn our eyes upon Jesus.

My prayer is that the scriptures contained in this journal, will help to guide you through this 40 Days of Consecration as we sincerely seek the Lord. As we read, reflect, and pray may the Lord help us to walk in the victory that He has won FOR us.

Pastor Sam

What type of fasting will the Mount Calvary Nation do?

We will observe a partial fast. That is, we will not give up food entirely for 40 days, but will abstain from certain foods. Pray and ask the Lord from what food or foods you and your family should abstain over the next 40 days. Some will give up meats, some will give up sugar, some soda, some breads...what you give up is between you and God.

Remember that true Biblical fasting is about afflicting the soul for spiritual benefit. We are not fasting to lose weight. We are not fasting for our physical health. We are not fasting just to discipline ourselves. We are not even fasting to "make God hear us." According to I John 5:14, we already have the confidence that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. Our fasting is to quiet the flesh, so that we can hear HIM! We deny the flesh, in order to tune our hearts to His.

Day 1

We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you.
